To Whom It May Concern:

The City of Chickasaw School System is required to make available certain financial, assessment, and safety reports to the public as mandated by ACT 95-313.

These reports includes numerous financial reports for each school and central operations by funding source and programs. These financial reports are available on our web page at: www.chickasawschools.com. You may access these reports by clicking Accountability Reports.

The ACT also requires that the system make available the Student achievement report and the School Safety and Discipline Report. This information is available at Alabama State Department of Education (ALSDE) website: www.alsde.edu under Accountability Reports.

If you have any questions regarding the Accountability Reports or any financial reports of the City of Chickasaw School System, please do not hesitate to contact me at (251)380-8119.

Best Regards,

David Wofford
Superintendent of Education
